Rivelin and AGDEN June 18/19th

Mick Berry

The title of the meet was given this way in the Meets List and I'm assuming that AGDEN or HARECLIFFE ROACHER as it is called will be the main centre of climbing.

The crag is up the hill from High Bradfield close to Sheffield. Grid Ref: SK263934. For those with cars, the best approach is from Bamford via Strines Reservoir, but for hitchers etc, the best route is in a No 16 bus from Corporation Lane Sheffield.

If one owns a water bucket the most convenient campsite is just below the rocks, but since the water is right at the eastern end of the edge, it's a bit of a trek with a billy can.

The edge catches most of the sun and the rocks dry out quickly. For those interested, "The Whittler" is not as hard as the guide makes out. ('Bet Berry has never been up it! gh.).

Lets have a good turn out for this meet since the crags in question are not (to my Knowledge), very often visited by 'Oreads' I'll be there Saturday evening.

ADDITIONAL MEET

ERIC BYNE'S 32nd ANNIVERSARY ON GRITSTONE

June 26th.

BIRCHEN'S EDGE

This additional meet is a joint one with the M.A.M. and The Mountain Club.

Although it can't be guaranteed that the B.B.C. will turn up to interview prominent members of the Oread as on the previous anniversary you can bet it will be 'some meet'.

Camping at Froggat's Farm sat night.

AMENDMENTS TO MEMBERS HANDBOOK.

As well as the 1960/61 meets list enclosed with this meets circular are two sheets of amendments which can be stuck into the Handbook so bringing it up-to-date. A new edition of the Handbook will most likely be brought out in 1961.

To keep the members list correct here are the latest address changes.
