ANNUAL GENERAL MESTING

Once again held in the Tea Room at the "Prince of Wales" Baslow (for the last time) this years General Meeting was the expected lively afair. First on the agenda were the reports from the various officers of the Club. The President one Jack Ashcroft gave his review of the past year saying that as he had been exiled in Coventry for most of it he could not report fully, but most of us realised that Jack has been as keen as ever and must have spent considerable time on journies to Committee Meetings and Meets.

The Secretary reported that Club Membership was the same as last year (95), Laurie Burns said we were still solvent, Burgess as Meets Secretary gave a full review of the years meets. The once monthly meeting at Borrowash (Second Tuesday in each Month) is a success and he hopes it will remain that way. Once again apart from a couple of meets there was a good attendance at club functions. He thought that only the meet leader turned up on the Yorkshire Meet, but Langdale etc were very encouraging.

The Hut Warden said the Hut was as popular as ever. The two working Parties during the past twelve months were good ones. The Hut roof had been damaged during a week of storms but temporarely repaired one week end. A local builder was to carry out a full repair (Insurance Pays) and also fix other parts of the roof as is our parties traversed the Aonach Eagach rides on necessary.

The election of the new Committee etc. followed and is: and Chris Martin spent

A lengthy debate on the proposed alterations to Club Rules and new Rules then followed. The only alteration agreed upon was the alteration to Rule & 7(6) proposed by B. Cooke. The two words HUT RULES should be incerted before improvements to amenities etc., Webb and Bave appleby traversed Appach Eraci

It was also generally agreed that members should have preferance over guests at the Hut at Bank Holidays and Club Meets and that bookings from Guests should not be accepted until four weeks before the meet. It was proposed that a hut rule following these lines should be discussed at Committee level and a circular stating the Committee's recomendation be sent to members saking for their opinions. isagi mashin of the Bidsan ligas.

Fri Morning.

First arivals were Chris Martin and Tony complete with three food tents and a cook (Maggie Lowe).

A few hours later Walley, Doreen, Chris Culley, Sutton Bill, (Prospective Member) Dave Appleby and Clive Webb arrived. Walley, Doreen, Chris and Bill went straight up to the ski slopes. Brian Housley and friend (Barry) motored from EXETER a distance of 582 miles (not bad for a long week end). Mike and Celia Berry, Sandy MacGibbon (prospective Member) and Margaret Attwood turned up in the Remarkable Renault. Secretary reported that Club Hembership was the

The Ski slopes were in excellent condition on most days, Easter Monday being the best with runs of 1500 ft. on Meal a Bhuiridh.

Four parties traversed the Aonach Eagach ridge on different days, Gullies were climbed on Sron na Creise and Buachaille Etive, the Ben Bheithir range traversed by Brian and Barry. Maggie Lowe and Chris Martin spent one day in Fort William, but made up for it on Easter Monday by climbing the Buachaille. Doreen, Mike Berry, Sandy, Paul, and I had a grand day on Sron na Creise.

Guy Lee was slewed most nights but did some good gullie climbing during the daylight hours (all his routes ended at Clachaig Hotel).

Barry Williams and Sandy attempted some unclimbed slabs in the Lost Valley Ravine (They are still unclimbed!)

Clive Webb and Dave Appleby traversed Aonach Egach, also climbed Bidean and spent every evening in the company of some charming ladies.

The Gullies and ridges of Bidean Nam Bian were in first Class Winter condition and at least 10 parties reached the summit in Alpine Conditions. On Easter Monday evening, descent from the Moun'ain proved very difficult and prolonged step cutting was necessary to descend the main snow couloir to the Lost Valley. Many climbers (Not Oreads!) wore crampons, and crampon marks were visible the whole length of the Bidean Riges. The weather on the whole remained good, the best days for sun being Friday and Monday, whilst Tuesday, when most of us returned, was the worst. Everyone agreed it had been a very successfull meet. The local farmer is very Pro Oread and seems to be keeping the site especially for Easter Oreads. Continged

GLENCOE EASTER - By way of explanation for taking 12 hours to drive from Nottingham to Glen Coe, Maggie Lowe said - " Don't forget Chris and I stopped for a roll"!

There was once again a very select gatering of Orads in the Carrngorms just before Easter, for Ski-ing and She-ing (more of the latter). The main snow run was in Corie Na Ciste and the Walley Smith Ski School with all it's glamour could be seen hard at work, but towards the end of a hectic week at least two of the group were seen in the cafe at the foot of the chair lift, and when asked if the ski-ing had been good that day they replied that they were just putting on their boots to go up. The time? 3.30pm!

Oreads were sorry to hear that the proposed British Karakorum Expedition has at the last moment been unable to obtain permission to make an attempt on Khinyang Chhish. They have however got permission to attack an equally difficult peak in Nepal.

Michael Gadd an old Oread is expecting to visit this country for twelve months at the end of this year. His home is in New Zealand. Old fiends will look forward to seeing him again.

At 4.15 after much bargaining Cooke started. A hour later and three runners I could just see his legs straddled out in misty space as he lay panting on top of the overhanging crux (no not the Sloth). It was so dark when I ascended (no torch of course) that I had to rely on compass bearings between runners!

HIGH DRAMA ON BLEAKLOW!

GEOFF HAYES

Those Oreads using the Rock and Heather Hut at Baslow after the A.G.M and those sleeping in Vans etc., close to the Hut, were aroused at the unearthly hour of 7am by a charming female (at least Rod Craddock must Have thought so because he departed in great haste in his van after her, the report was that he was still in his pyjamas). The message was to report to the Police station at Glossop and then go out on Bleaklow to look for two missing Pover Scouts. About 20 Oreads spent most of Sunday on the search. Weather conditions were arctic and the chances of any search party finding the unfortunate two remote. Those directing the search told that there was really no chance of the Scouts having survived the night without Shelter. The top of Bleaklow and the Alport were certainly impressive with deep drifts and fine snow effects, most of us agreed it would have been the best place for a walk even if we had not been called out on the search.

Just been reading an article in a Sunday Newspaper headed: 100 On Treck Where 3 Died which states "Before leaving they were warned that in the event of heavy moorland mists, torrential rain or snow they were to make for the nearest road. If heavy fog came down they were to wait where they were shouting or blowing whistles until one of the control staff found them!!" What Next?
