OREAD MOUNTAINEERING CLUB

WHITSUN MEETS CIRCULAR

ISLE OF ARRAN

JUNE 4th/8th

COLIN HOBDA

Once again the annual pilgrimage of the Oread to the Isle of Arran is nearly upon us, and I already understand that quite a number of Oreads will be making the journey.

Camping will be in Glen Rosa at the farm where the gate is across the road. First arrivals should ask where to camp, but the usual place is a few hundred yards up the glen by the river.

The area offers excellent ridge walking as well as good rock climbing of all grades. In addition, cycles can be hired for a small fee. This is the best kind of transport for getting around the island. (Should prove quite interesting with a pot leg - Dorcen)

The highlight of the holiday is, of course, the choosing of Miss Lamash 1965 and the dance.

I understand that the sportsman of the year, namely G.Gadsby, will be present to organise football, cricket and swimming for those thinking of having a "lazy" time.

Anyone requiring or offering lifts please contact me at 71 Carsington Crescent, Allestree, Derby or in the "Bell".

O.S. 213014 - Lake District Tourist Map

Good open field for camping along the farm track at the foot of Hardnott Pass. Permission to be obtained at the farm.

The site is within walking distance of Scafell, Esk Buttress, Bowfell and Dow Crag, whilst for shortwalking gymnasts, the recently developed Heron Crag,  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile from the campsite gives ~~XXXXXX~~ several grand "very Severe" courses on excellent rock. The meet gives Oreads an excellent opportunity to combine good climbing with hard drinking, as it quite unofficially clashes with the Summit boozing team's Whit meet.

However, I don't know whether the turf will meet with the approval of our President as we are only just in Cumberland. Nevertheless, with a few hundred acres to select his pitch, he should be pitched by Easter Monday.

Lifts, I don't know? If anybody has a lift to offer or needs fixing up with a lift, contact Nat Allen, 17 Springfield Close, Littleover, Derby.

G.J.GADSBY,

Meets Sec.
