Nov. 4/5th

BONFIRE MEET

W. HAYDEN

after two years, The Multi-Club Boozy Dramatic Society will proudly present their Pantomime ?!! This great stage epic will commence at 9.00pm after the bonfire at the Hostel. Joining the usual world-wide unknown cast will be Sir Lawrence Handley, Yul Brynner Corden, Emlyn Williams, and a host of gorgeous new girls.

Sunday morning, I will expect every man to do his duty and line up with me at 10.30am for 11.00am. complete with natty shorts for a 4½ mile trot.

Camping will be on Blore Pastures, -first left at Ilam Cross First people there to get permission from the farmer.

Nov. 14th

EVENING MEET

SCOUT HALL BORROWASH

Don't miss this chance to see and hear a first ^{class} lecture by Doug Scott on his recent visit to the Hindu Kush. Doug's last lecture to us (Tibetse Mountains) was a first class 'do' and enjoyed by many Oreads. Let's have a good turn out and bring all your friends. The lecture should commence at 8.00pm so please try to be there. Coffee and tea will be FREE but here is the snag-- I'm afraid we will have to charge 2/- a head to help cover the cost of the lecture.

BULLSTONES

H. PRETTY.

This meet now has little connection with Bullstones due to the virtual destruction of the old hut.

It is proposed to meet in the 'Nags Head' Edale on Friday night. (Cars can be left at Bamford & train taken to Edale if preferred) Wood Cottage (SnakePass) has been booked for approx. 12 persons on both Friday and Saturday nights and, if the weather is reasonable, the Meet Leader suggests that it might be a change to walk across Kinder direct to Wood Cottage after leaving the 'Nags Head'. It could be an incredible experience for those unfamiliar with Derbyshire moors on a typical November night. Since there is a Mountain Rescue exercise on the 19th, some members of the team may find it useful to join the meet on Sat.

Friday night is impossible. Doubtless members of the party (Rescue or otherwise) will be in the Snake Inn on the Sat. night. Join us on Friday night in Edale if you can, Anything can (and generally does) happen on this Meet.

December 2nd

ANNUAL DINNER

RONNI LANGWORTHY

The Dinner will be held this year at the Green Man Hotel, Ashbourne, and the price will be 22/-. After last year's freeze there is an increase in price this year of 2/-, but increased productivity is represented by turkey instead of chicken. The Cave & Crag Club Hut at Alstonfield has been booked (2/- per member) and a limited no. of beds are available. There are also several campsites in or near the village; details of these can be supplied if requested. A coach will be run from Alstonfield to Ashbourne at 5.30 pm. returning to Alstonfield after the dinner. If members wish to drink their fill and yet escape the breathaliser test, they should take advantage of these arrangements
