MEETS CIRCULAR
AUGUST/SEPTEMBER 1970

THE EDGES

K. HODGE

You will be pleased to hear that after the hustle and bustle of the Alps it is time to sink back into the leisurely atmosphere that goes with most Derbyshire meets.

This weekend, camping will be at Calver Mill within easy walking distance of the climbing venue which is Froggatt and Curbar. The latter being visited if we get up early enough after a nights drinking at Edith's.

Why not come along and give those snow softend knuckles hell.

AUG 29/30 & 1 SEPT.
(for some)

CADER IDRIS

P. JANES

I feel that very little has to be said about this meet. You go to Cader and you camp. If you don't know where Cader is, ask Ray Handley he wrote the guide. He'll also tell you where to camp, if he can remember. As regards to transport, see D. Burgess or D. Appleby they've both got cars.

If you manage to overcome all these problems successfully and reach the Fox's Path, you deserve to be in this club.

Have a good weekend, I'm just going on my bloody holidays.

Who knows, we might meet at _ _ _ Cader!.
