MEETS CIRCULAR FEB/MAR 1970

FEB 7/8

WINTER WALK

P. GARDINER

This is a round trip & if you want to know where the walk is going to - turn up & see. Assemble at the village hall, Parwich (G.R. I87544) at 10.30 am. Sat. Feb. 7th. Permission has been obtained to leave cars in the village hall car park, but please load your car up with bodies if possible to keep down the number of vehicles. Everyone needs a sleeping bag & the first 16 to give their names to me will get a bed on Sat. night. Anyone else should bring a lilo or other gritstone floor softener. The accomodation we are using (3/- per head) has good cooking facilities, heating & electric light, but it might be advisable to pack the odd plate, mug & eating irons. Pub nearby for Sat night.

INDOOR MEET

ALI RATNA TIBA

C. RADCLIFFE

When I asked Chris what he would like me to put in this circular about his lecture, he told me to emphasize the connection between A.R.T. & the Oread. So if you, like me, do not know the connection, come & listen to what I know will be a fine lecture. We have all seen the quality of Chris's slides, & we have heard him as an after dinner speaker, so come & see the two combined when he tells us about his trip to the Himalayas.

PLEASE be there at the Scout Hall at 7.30 pm

FEB 21/22

OGWEN VALLEY

E. WALLIS

GRID REF. OF WILLIAMS FARM CAMPSITE 685602

As both Glan Dena & London M.C. Hut are booked up for this weekend it means that tents will have to be brought out of storage. So come on all you hardy Oreads & give yourself a treat. I am hoping for lots of snow & ice so that we can get to grips with it, either around Devil's Kitchen or else on the Carneddau. If not, then there are lots of routes of all grades for everyone. As we both are still active, Merle will be on the lookout for a competent leader - or should it be second? Offers (to take her climbing!!) will be considered, so we will be chatting you up on Sat. morning.
