CLIME IF YOU WILL ...

a commentary on Geoff Hayes and his Club, the Oread Mountaineering Club.

compiled and edited by Jean Russell in association with Jack Ashcroft, Celia and Mike Berry, Gordon and Margaret Gadsby, Anne Rayes and Paul Gardiner.

In his Foreward, Sir Jack Longland says of this book "It is not only a tribute to Geoff Hayes by his friends, but also, rand quite unself-conciously a 'Salute to a Club'. In my experience, the Oread Club is unique in the British Mountaineering scene, whether in the number and variety of 'real' characters' to be found among its members (Is that YOU?), in the comprehensiveness of its activities - inor near - the hills, and in the imaginative and outrageous Saternalia which it inadequately describes as the Annual Dinner! " (This was written before Sir Jack was a 'victim' at this year's event)

Every member of the Oread will wish to ... their own copy of this unique book. As far as we know the Oread is the first mountaineering Club to record its activities in this way. You must read of Geoff's mommoth 14 Peaks walks great conquest on North Faces; how the Club was founded; Geoff and Brian Gooke's first ascent on Skye; expeditions to South Georgia and the Himalaya. Over members of the Oread have contributed to the book, either by writing articles or submitting rue of the 100 plus photographs.

THIS BOOK IS ABOUT YOUR CLUB, and we do mean YOU
