

MEETS CIRCULAR NOVEMBER 1975

DOVEDALE DASH 2nd NOVEMBER 1975

?????

For months now some of the Oread's finest athletes have been training secretly behind locked doors (namely those of the George at Alstonfield, the Gate at Brassington, and others), venturing forth only after dark to streak through the countryside. Rumour has it that Ockbrook has its very own bionic biped, and no-one can have missed the tales of strange happenings in Parwich of late.

It is expected that Rusty will again be leading this meet, both the pre-ambule around Dovedale, and the more serious beer shifting contest later at 'The George'. The form book could well be upset though as we have one or two unknown newcomers to contend with. The Green streaker is expected to put in a guest appearance, and of course a major challenge is expected from Chesterfield's one man racing team. The latter, of course has gone to extreme lengths, forgoing the luxury of an Alpine holiday in order not to break his training schedule.

We confidently expect to have Oreads spread throughout the field (mainly after everyone else has left it) so let's have a good turn out from one and all. If you can't run, then walk, if you can't walk, then come along and shout some encouragement to the idiots amongst us who think that they can.

BURBAGE 16th NOVEMBER 1975

C. RUSSELL

The meet will be Sunday only, and I hope to be there from 10.30 onwards. I shall be concentrating my efforts mainly at the Northern end of the Edge, where the height of the rock is suitable for those of modest talent. For those who don't know the edge it is situated in the square ref. 2682 on the O.S. sheet 111. Cars can be parked at the Southern End and parties on the rock can be clearly seen if one walks up the track marked on the map between the edge and Burbage Brook, so even a deaf newcomer should be able to locate the Oread.

The climbing is Rivelin Grit, similar to Birchens Edge and is 'overgraded' Baslow area stuff so this is definately a day out for the B team.

ANNUAL DINNER 22nd NOVEMBER 1975

D. BURGESS

The dinner will once again be held at the Green Man, Ashbourne, at 7.00 for 7.30 on Saturday 22nd November. Owing to increased costs the dinner this year will be £3.00 per person. Tickets can be obtained from D. Burgess at 'the Moon' on tuesday evenings or at 36, Hillside, Findern, Derby., using the tear off form on this circular and sending a stamped addressed envelope. Guests should be limited to one per member due to the limited seating capacity and tickets will be on a first come first served basis. It is hoped that all will turn out on the Sunday for the treck over the tops to Alstonfield. Venue - Dovedale car park at 10.30 for 11.00 latest start.

An additional meet by request. The Welsh hut meets have been very popular this year so it was felt that another meet at Tan-y-Wyddfa wouldn't go amiss. Ken Hodge has volunteered to organise accomodation etc., so if you want to go please get in touch with him at the 'Moon'.
