

AGDEN ROCHER

AUGUST 15

RON SANT

This Meet will take the usual format in that it will be a one-day affair, although the reasonably close proximity of Heathy Lea may provide overnight accommodation, and good weather has been booked.

For those who haven't been to Agden (there must be at least 150 Oreads) the crag (G.R. 264934) is situated close to the village of Bradfield and overlooking Agden Reservoir. Access is gained from the road passing behind the crag.

The crag provides a wide variety of middle grade routes and excellent walking can be had in the surrounding area. For anyone requiring a top-up of alcohol levels at lunch time, the 'Old Horns' is situated in Bradfield. For these reasons, I hope to see a good cross-section of the Club 'giving it all'.

PRESIDENTS MEET

JULY / AUGUST ?

PETE SCOTT

Despite the poor attendance at last year's Presidents Meet (Nairobi, African Rift Valley, Mt. Kenya area) when only Radders bothered to turn up (there's loyalty for you), the President has decided to have another attempt at leading a Meet this year.

Assuming distance may have been a problem for some members last year, this year's venue is in England (well, most of the time). For anyone wishing to attend this 16 day Meet located at various times anywhere between Edale and Kirk Yetholm, around about the end of July - beginning of August, contact the President. A certain amount of autonomy is envisaged during this Meet.

If the above Meet does not fit in with most Oread's plans (one assumes most will have gone to the Alps), then perhaps something entirely different can be organised during the social season.

ST. DAVID'S, PEMBROKE

LES PEEL

Camping for this Meet will be at Rhoson Gawel Farm (G.R. 772252 1" O.S. Sheet 138/151) at St. Justinian, overlooking Ramsey Island and the Lifeboat Station. From St. David's, follow road signs for St. Justinian. After about 1½ miles you will see on the left a caravan site. The campsite is in the field behind the caravans. Entrance to the campsite is up a track at the lefthand side of the entry to the caravan site.

CLUB BADGES

RON SANT

If anyone would like a club badge then it will cost you 50p from Ron Sant.

SEPTEMBER MEET LEADERS

Would you please try and get your Meet write-ups to me before you go off to the Alps.
