February 8/9

Rock Hudson

Friday night at The Wheatsheaf in Baslow. On Saturday, why not try out a few new crags - I'm thinking of looking in on Bell Hagg, Rivelin, Stannington, with a walk between, or a more extensive walk if weather not suitable for climbing. On Sunday, perhaps a walk over Kinder if wintery, or if not, a mixture of walking and a few routes on those crags you have missed visiting.

Other ideas, I'm sure, will develop so come along and see. And make it a good weekend - for old, young, hard and soft members. Any more info, contact me on Radcliffe on Trent 3031.

Joint M.A.M., Coniston

February 15/16

Sheelagh O'Reilly

As the M.A.M. Hut at Glan Dena has not been completed yet, this year's Joint Meet is based at Low House in Coniston, a hut offering excellent facilities although not as large as Glan Dena - hence early booking is advised for a weekend which promises excellent ice climbing on nearby Dow Crag!! Bookings to either Sheelagh or John on Belper 7194 or at the Rowing Club.

Robin Sedgwick

The weather and snow conditions have already been booked for this Meet, so a superb weekend is guaranteed for all, romping up icy gullies in perfect sunshine. However, in order to be certain of having a good weekend may I suggest the following packing list:-

curvy ice tools and spikey feet, E.B.'s Fires or whatever R-0 O'R has ordained to be this year's "in" boot at only £69.95 a pair, bucket and spade, swimming trunks and money for donkey rides, skis, copy of 'Observers book of Sheep' and a pair of stout loose-fitting wellington boots, snorkel & flippers, copy of 'War & Peace', Beer Money.

With that lot we should be able to cope with any slight aberrations in the Welsh climate and have a great weekend. Phone 519876 to book, or see me at the Rowing Club the Tuesday before.

'CANADA' by Julian Dunster. Julian is an ex-Oread who deserted to the colonies (rumours of female involvement) a few years ago. He will be talking to us about his summer and winter mountaineering in the Rockies and other ranges, as well as crag-rattng and 'back country' (wilderness to you) skiing and travelling.

Tuesday 4th March 1986. Royal Oak at Ockbrook. 8.00 pm Start.

Oread Journal: 1985Rock Hudson

Don't forget those articles you promised me for the 1985 issue. In the next 4 to 6 weeks please, if you wish to contribute. I'm looking for good action photos. At present, few people have written about rock climbing - a special route, their hardest route, etc. Any problems or enquiries, contact Rock Hudson on Radcliffe on Trent 3031.
