FINAL COPY DATE FOR NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER 23 Oct '86

4-5 Oct

Bryn Hafod

John Linney

Once again I have booked 18 places at the Mountain Clubs' hut which is situated at the head of Cwm Cowarch (Grid Ref:GH853194) near Dinas Mawddy. The hut is about 15 minutes walk from the car park on the Common Fawnog Fawr.

Many say this is the best hut in Wales, situated underneath the crag and at the foot of the Arans. This gives lots of scope for the climber and walker alike. Craig Cowarch, Cwm Du, Craig-y-Adern (Bird Rock) and Cader Idris for the climber, the surrounding hills yield many surprising walks. The Dove, Watershead, or Cowarch to Cader Idris are two of the more longer walks possible. So, no excuses for anyone missing the this meet.

Sustenance : The Red Lion, at Dinas, also entertains with singing and laughter and does good food for those who cannot cook.

Bookings: Ring me at home on Penkridge 3342 after 6pm.

I shall be at the Rowing Club for last minute details and to work out lifts etc..

So lets 'av yer. Join me Friday night at the Red Lion, Dinas for a practice session and a battle plan for the weekend. Look forward to seeing you.

Even if you haven't entered any slides (shame on you) Don't forget to come along, for what should be an interesting and entertaining evening.

18-19 Oct Gower Peninsula Paul Laver

Paul is currently stowing the dehedrals of the New World so information concerning this meet is scarce. We do know however that it will be a camping meet climbing on the superb limestone seacliffs of the Gower. Ideal for families and hardmen.
Tel. Paul on Derby 381698 for full details.

Meets 1987

Roger Larkam

Bookings are now being taken for places as 1987 Meet Leaders. If you have any ideas on where meets should be held next year or volunteers to lead them please offer your services to Roger Larkam. For those in any doubt as to the simplicity of being a meet leader, all you have to do is decide the place, co-ordinate the transport and organise the drinking. Easy isn't it?!!
