Jan 17

Tan-y-Wyddfa

Richard Hopkinson

Snowdonia provides the most reliable winter conditions south of the Border, or at least that's what the books say. Certainly on the last two years this meet has provided at least one good days' winter climbing and walking, so let's have a full hut again.

See me at the Rowing Club or give me a ring on Wirksworth 3392(home) or Matlock 3411 ext.7597 (work) to book.

For those arriving early enough, I hope to get to Rhyd Ddu in time for a pint on Friday evening (Don't forget it's 10:30 closing time).

Jan 30/31

Little Langdale

Gordon Wright

The usual Winter meet in the Fylde club hut. There is always a good chance of snow and ice and blue skies and the certainty of good company, beer and jollity at the local hostelries. See me at the Rowing Club or phone Burton-on-Trent 813690 to book your place and to find out how to get to the Hut. I will be in the Three Shires in Little Langdale from 9 o'clock on the Friday evening.

Annual Dinner

The Editor and his wife have received glowing and in some cases very hazy recollections of the 1986 Dinner at Callow Park. For those who didn't realise, it can now be revealed that the cabaret wordsmith was Brian West. (The thing hanging from the ceiling was apparently Peter Scott). The following anonymous submission has been received for publication:

The cast would like to thank Brian West for writing the Oread version of the "Chicken Song", and to Jill Beal for supplying the rafter used in Pete Scott's acrobatic routine (performed, please note, without safety net or truss!!).

Thanks also to Roger Turner for the use of his organ, and to Jill Hayhurst for the use of Belper High School drum kit.

Further thanks to the Royal Ballet choreographer, who denies all knowledge of the proceedings, and still can't believe Regs' feet are real.

For more about the subject see your next Oread Journal. (!!!)
