Fell Race

Rob Tresidder

Roger has been practising hill repetitions in Darley Park. Phil has mended her gaiters and is going to polish her walking boots. So whether you hate competition or are determined to prevent Larkam from organising next year's race, there's something for you.

Many people have asked me what the race will be like. The course is, of course, a secret but length will be about 5 to 6 miles. As 1 have already notited out, it will be more intellectual, crudity and of course, a secret but length will be about 5 to 6 miles. As 1 have already pointed out, it will be more intellectual, erudite and errotic than the Perrin lecture was expected to be. In addition it will be less scatolgical, less high and less late than Perrin turned out to be! A couple more clues: anyone wearing the new Boreal Flyers will be penalised two minutes; some Oreads will already know of my latent republicanism, dislike of cream crackers and singing voice.

Walkers will be let loose at 1045; runners will follow at intervals after 1100. Registration will be from 1030. It will be a great help to me if those intending to walk or run would let me know in advance (tel. Wirksworth 3953), though I will accept entries on the day.

Friends welcome by arrangement. There will be no entry fee for the race but a charge will be made for home made soup and freshly filled rolls. If you really don't want to enter, would you please volunteer to (wo)man a check point.

Map: 1:25000 (2.5" to 1 mile) Sheet SK27 (included on White Peak map) would be useful. Monochrome photocopies will be available.

Training run: I shall be in Scotland on 1st March so the training run will now leave Brassington Church at 2 o'clock on Saturday 7 March.

Derbys Barn & Pub Supper

Clive Russell

Something different! The weekend will commence at 7pm approximately with liquid refreshment in the British Legion Club at Parwich — map ref. 186544 on the lane leading to Alsop-on-le-Dale. After initial lubrication a substantial supper of stew and veg. etc. will be provided followed by further nightcap in the Legion and a brisk moonlight walk of 1 mile or so to the luxurious bivouac barn, where a Bullstone-esque night of outrageous repartee will pass. A suitable pastoral walk will be arranged on Sunday taking crags and hostelry as conditions dictate.

The cost will be £2, first come first served, bookings to Rusty by Wed evening 18 Mar at the latest.

Motor cars should be parked out of the way somewhere and will not be used for the duration of the meet which will finish back at Parwich. Bring bivvy gear and a plastic sheet, also plates, mugs & cutlery for the meal. Rucksacks can be left in the barn and collected on Sunday evening, so we can travel light.

If there is sufficient demand, Sheila might be perpared to arrange a parallel  meet, sharing the supper but with suitably up-rated sleeping accommodation. Sive her a ring on Parwich 369 at least a week beforehand.

Note: - the plastic sheet referred to in para.2 refers to protection of sleeping bags from wet straw - not to possible incontinence - please do not feel insulted.
