May 2-4th Heathy Lea

Correction .The Sunday venue is not at Rubicon, but on the Water-Cum-Jolly Crags beyond

May 9-10th. Rhinogs Walk Ian Brindle

It is some years since the club visited this remote area of Wales. On that occasion an excellent outing was had by all and I hope emulate that successful meet. I envisage a bivvy to be necessary on at least one night, so be prepared. For details contact me either at the Rowing Club or on Derby 47939.

May 16-17th Working Party Week End At Tan-yr-Wddfa Chuck Hooley

The jobs to be accomplished are;

Saturday, One sick tree to be felled (sub-contracted) laborer's required to help clear the debris and cut into logs, any spare chain saws will be most welcome.

Sat/Sun , Locks changed on the Hut doors to receive new keys, skilled wood workers required.

Sunday, If the tree is down and the weather permits the large south wall is to receive a coat of exterior finish and any other area's that need touching up, plus a general spring clean of the Hut.

Members and Prospective Members who would like to join the Welsh Hut Sub-Committee on a week end with a difference are most welcome. In total about 10-12 strong healthy bodies are required, including ladies of course, thirst can be quenched at the local Hostelry.

Our transport officer John Shreeve can be contacted at the Rowing Club on Tuesday evening's, lifts may be available.

I will see you there.

May 16-17th Heathy Lea Working Party Pete Lancaster

Pete will be organising a working party. Several jobs need to be attended to, even if the meets card failed to provide a 'slot'. For those free part or all of the above week end contact Pete for details.

May 16-17th Hayfield Helen Griffiths

No information yet, so contact Helen for details.

May 23-30th Cornwall Ron Chambers

Well here it is the one you've been dreaming of all winter. At last a chance to cast off the cags and breeches, don the T shirts and shorts and get your hands on some of that Cornish 'gold'. Due to the state of the family emporium, I have chosen disgression rather than valour and can be found at Trevorrian Farm House, Sennen. (OS 371 274) or down the road in the "First and Last" pub on the Saturday night. There are however plenty camp/caravan sites within spitting distance of Sennen and it's fairly central for the main climbing/sun bathing areas. For accommodation particulars etc. Ring Derby 832467 or see me at the Rowing Club.

May 30-31st Ogwen 'Rusty' Russell

A return to a traditional climbing venue with easy routes on Tryfan and the like in mind, not suitable for the active rock climber, but then they don't approve of formal meets. Camping will be at Gwern y gof Uchaf, under Little Tryfan. If any old stages like Pretty or Janes break their recent habits, as they did in March, they can recognise me by tapping their white sticks against a grey Astra, or Vango Force Ten tent after 8.00pm on the Friday night. Any one requiring lifts or info, ring me on Parwich 369 during the week before the bank holiday, which is the preceding week end.

Heathy Lea Hut Custodian

Pete Lancaster is now the new custodian. For any information regarding the use and booking of the hut contact him at the following address;

77, Cowlshaw Road,
Hunters Bar,
Sheffield. Tel. 667060

Wednesday April 29th. Brassington

The first of summer evening meets. For those intending to climb on Rainster please note. Climbing is no longer allowed without permission of the owner, a Mr. Brakill, who is quite a reasonable man. Contact him at Tinkers Inn, Ashbourne Tel. 42824. Remember, Chuck Hooley is continuing to work on our behalf for climbing access to these crags. Don't compromise him or the Oread by not obtaining permission.

WANTED (STILL) MATERIAL FOR THE 1987 OREAD JOURNAL

Rock Hudson
Hon. Editor

I have still not received many articles for your club journal. Without your contributions I am unable to produce one. Therefore don't put off writing something yet again, sit down now and put pen to paper. Old, middle aged and young, rock climber or walker, artist or potential 'Booker' Prize winner, present or past events; Lets have something from you.

Ask if you need any more information.

Any one handing in more than ten articles, gets an empty bottle of rum.

I would like contributions as soon as possible, that's before mid-summer!
