NOV. 14-15 PINNACLE CLUB HUT CWM DYLI RUTH GORDON

This is a "back to basics" meet: who wants all mod cons and superloos when you can enjoy cold running water as it wells up round your ankles while you huddle in front of the fire fighting over the honour of emptying the Elsan. Seriously though this is a lovely little hut, splendidly situated below Snowdon beside Cwm Dyli Power Station and within walking distance of the P.y.G. There are 14 places and as cooking space is a bit limited I'm going to cook a communal meal for a modest fee (under #1.50) for anyone who wants to join in. So I can plan the shopping please can you book with me or George Fowler at the Rowing Club or by phone, Matlock 56636 by Tuesday Nov. 10th at the latest.

NOV.21st OREAD DINNER RICHARD HOPKINSON

REMINDER! Don't forget to attend this year's Oread Dinner - the social event of the year, so come along and make it a great success. Note that the cost is less than last year!
Please help me out by booking and paying for the ticket/s as soon as possible.

There will be the usual Sunday walk following the dinner. The walk will start at the car park below Black Rocks at 11.00am and follow the High Peak Trail towards Brassington and then for a drink at The Gate. See you on the walk or at the pub.

NOTE There is now a considerable charge for camping or staying in a caravan in the grounds of Callow Park Country Club. So cheak.

DEC. 4-6th BULLSTONES BRIAN WEST tel. 0332 880034

Remember that dirty weekend you always promised yourself? - those hours of jolly fun with two candles and a sheet of polythene? This year Bullstones makes a nostalgic return to the Peak District, and I invite any Bullstoner, old or new, to turn up at some time or other over the weekend.

To facilitate this, I have retained the Jubilee Cabin for our use on both the Friday and the Saturday night. This increases the options for those who cannot commit themselves to the traditional delights.

The Meet starts in the Nags Head, Edale, eight till late on the Friday night, and finishes in the Nags Head on the Sunday lunchtime. The bit in between is up to you.

LAST DATE FOR MATERIAL FOR THE DEC.
NEWSLETTER NOV 24th.
