October 1st-2nd Tan-yr-Wyddfa Working Party Committee

Jobs planned for this weekend are to finish the woodwork in the bedroom, paint the dining room and generally tidy up the hut.

October 4th Indoor Meet

Tony Raphael

The first of this year's indoor meets will be held as usual in the Royal Oak at Ockbrook, starting at 8.00 pm.

Robin Sedgwick will be giving a lecture entitled 'From the Orkneys to the Alps'. A selection of the creme de la creme, these slides have been carefully selected and delicately blended to produce one of Robin's audio-visual extravaganzas; not to be missed!

Future indoor meets will be

November 1st Ian Smith Climbing in Jersey

December 6th Oread Auction (start turning out your rucksacks, bookshelves and cupboards now!)

All meets are on the first Tuesday of the month - see you there.

October 8th-9th Stanage

Rock Hudson

Contact Rock on Radcliffe-on-Trent 3031 for details about this meet.

October 15th-16th Sedburgh

Colin Barnard

I thought for a change I'd try a new venue at Catholes Barn just South of Sedburgh (GR 653908). The barn provides bunkhouse accommodation and I've booked it on the basis of first come first served, so book early to avoid disappointment. All you need to bring is sleeping bags, pillowcases and personal gear; all cooking gear etc is provided.

The area offers an opportunity to explore new countryside in the Howgill Fells, Cautley Spout, Dentdale and the Baugh Fells, and is convenient for the Eastern Lake District.

To get there, leave the M6 at junction 37 and drive into Sedburgh centre where you turn right for Millthrop. Turn right again there, and in about half a mile keep straight on at a fork, and Catholes Farm is immediately after the fork on your left.

Alternatively, ring me on Stafford 664644 (evening) or 223121 (work).

Look forward to seeing you there for a good weekend.

October 15th-16th Golden Oldies, Tan-yr-Wyddfa Doreen Hodge

I've been delighted by the response for this meet and am looking forward to an enjoyable weekend with 'old' friends. All we need is good weather to clinch it. I've nothing definite planned with activities mainly dependent on the weather, but I expect we'll be chasing Ashcroft over the 'Five Cols' or something equally exhausting!

Several people mentioned that they would be interested in having a meal out and I had intended to book at the Cwellyn in Rhyd Ddu where the prices are reasonable. Unfortunately I've had some unfavourable reports about the meals there and with prices in Beddgelert at £9.50 a head I've decided to drop the idea.

Ken and I will be in Rhyd Ddu on the Friday night so looking forward to seeing you there.

October 22nd-23rd Tan-yr-Wyddfa Family Meet Gordon Gadsby

Contact Gordon on Nottingham 227012 to book places on this meet. This is always a very popular meet so book early.

October 29th Oread Photo Competition Committee

Four colour slides may be entered in each category. Please send all entries to Lisa Welbourn, 11 Waterloo Road, Beeston, Nottingham, NG9 2BU, by Tuesday 18th October at the latest.

Brassington - Rainster Rocks

Climbing is again banned at Rainster and the crag is to be fenced off.

Willersley Castle Crag

The BMC have recently been contacted by a number of climbers who are concerned about the use of this crag. The landowners are extremely concerned about the over-use that is taking place and IT IS THEREFORE ESSENTIAL THAT YOU TELEPHONE MR AND MRS W ALCORN BEFORE GOING THERE.

Mr and Mrs Alcorn's telephone number is 0629 582270.
