Oread Newsletter

January 1990

January 12th-13th Tan-yr-Wyddfa Rock Hudson

There's already a lot of snow in North Wales, so get your axes and crampons sharpened for what could be the first winter climbing meet of 1990.

See Rock at the Rowing Club or telephone Radcliffe-on-Trent 333031 to book places, arrange transport etc.

January 16th Indoor Meet, Royal Oak, Ockbrook Tony Raphael

Harry Pretty - The Corsican Haute Route and the Northern Pindos

NOTE - Instead of the normal first Tuesday, this meet will be held on the third Tuesday of the month. evening

January 26th-27th Little Langdale Pete Amour

Little Langdale and no Gordon Wright! Yes, that's right folks, but they do say that if a thing has been well organised, it doesn't require it's organiser in attendance.

With that said I have been requested to take up the honours and collect names, drivers, rounds buyers etc - mine's a pint Rock!

For details you can contact me on 0773 826219 after 6.30 pm. See you in the Three Shires Head on the Friday evening.

Lost

Will the Oread member (male, believed to be from Lancashire or possibly Yorkshire - the accents are so similar - and the possessor of an extraordinarily large chalk bag) who was seen to leave early from the Annual Dinner in a lady's purple lurex jacket with diamante trim please return it to its owner? She didn't mind him taking it - it's just that it clashes horribly with the brown skirt he was wearing.

Easter 1990 Ullapool

John Linney

John and his team have made a booking of 2 cottages at Ullapool for the week beginning 14th April. There are only 8 places so it will be very much first come, first served. The NW Highlands in April threaten to be a superb place so ring John on Penkridge 3342 or Colin Barnard on Stafford 664644.

A Guide to the use of the Oread Huts

As there must by now be a large number of Oread members who have never seen a copy of the Club handbook, the following extract is included.

Members are advised to book in advance and should check with the Booking Secretary that the hut will not be overcrowded. Remember that a maximum of only six beds are available if the hut is being used by another club. Oread members may take a maximum of two guests at the discretion of the booking secretary. If you do not book you may have to give up your bed late at night to someone who has. In this event you may sleep on the floor ensuring as little inconvenience to other visitors as possible and you should make other arrangements for subsequent nights.

The booking secretary is Colin Hobday.
