This book stemmed from an idea by Celia Berry after she had read Geoff's mountaineering diaries, and it has been carried to fruition by the following group of Oread mountaineering club members.

Jean Russell A.L.A., born in Preston Lancashire, but now living in Parwich, a Derbyshire village near Ashbourne. Jean works as a lecturer in children's literature for Nottingham and Sheffield universities, she is on the National Executive of the Federation of Children's Book Groups. In her leisure hours, apart from mountaineering she is often found riding her horse Bilbo Baggins, across the rolling hills of The Peak in company with Rusty, her husband on his mare Bess.

Mike Berry born in Beeston was a childhood friend of Geoff's. Mike lives in Borrowash and works in Derby as a Chemical Engineer, this profession taking him lecturing to Australia and North America. Apart from his love of the mountains he is a devoted family man, member of the mountain rescue team and enjoys classical music.

Gordon Gadsby of Beeston, Nottingham. Gordon, who works in the building trade as a painter and decorator, is an outstanding photographer and artist. He has climbed in places as far apart as Corsica and Arctic Norway and in his spare time he is a Snowdonia National Park Warden and a member of the mountain rescue team.

Jack Ashcroft of Bradway, Sheffield, works as a Civil Engineer. Jack has climbed in many places and was a member of the Derbyshire Himalayan Expedition. These days he specialises in long distance mountain walks and keeping up with his three active sons and his wife Janet.

Paul Gardner of Allestree, Derby, works in Burton-on-Trent as a packaging engineer for a major brewery firm. Paul is a founder member of the Oread and is radio operator when the rescue team are on call out. He is an experienced skier and every winter will see him on the boards with his wife Betty and son, Douglas, either in the Cairngorms or in Europe in The Alps or Pyrennes.

Margaret Gadsby, born in Davyhulme, Manchester, now living in Beeston. Margaret, who is a part-time secretary, has travelled extensively with her husband Gordon. She enjoys gardening, drama and is an armchair supporter of Manchester City Football Club.

Anne Hayes, Geoff's wife, who first came to England as an au pair girl from Aachen in Germany, was herself a member of The German Alpine Club. Without Anne's enthusiasm and assistance this book would not have materialised.
