

Oread MC Code of Conduct for use of Social Media

Social Media is great for sharing information between members. Social media can also be misused. For the protection of the Oread Mountaineering Club and its members it is essential that members make informed decisions about their use of social media.

It is the responsibility of all members to:-

Be respectful at all times – posts/comments may be viewed by all members and the public.

Refrain from publishing comments that could be controversial or on potentially inflammatory subjects.

Avoid hostile or harassing communications or comments that could be viewed as abusive, offensive or derogatory.

Only post mountaineering and Oread related subjects on Oread sites.

Do not use Oread social media sites for advertising for commercial gain.

Be aware of publishing copyrighted or borrowed material with citations and links. When publishing direct paraphrased quotations, thoughts, ideas, photos or videos, give credit to the original publisher or author.

The Oread Mountaineering Club reserves the right to delete any post or comment within any of its social media platforms without warning or notice.

Members who breach this code of conduct will have their action treated in accordance with the Discipline and Appeals procedure of the club Constitution.
